

Contestant Registration and Agreement

Fit4Life is a new television reality show to be produced and aired in 2018 on EMTV; PNG's Premier Television Channel. EMTV is currently looking for interested contestants to participate in this exciting show. They must meet strict selection and availability criteria, including a health clearance, before they can be selected as one of the 12 contestants for the show.

The series involves personal trainers, life coaches, nutritionists, health care professions and successful leaders working closely with 12 participants to help them become physically and mentally fit to face the realities of life, as well as the joys of living a healthy and active lifestyle. Under the supervision and guidance of trained professionals, participants will learn about fitness and workout tips, nutrition and healthy eating habits, stress management and much, much, more. The contestants will need to endure through some of the toughest exercise and fitness regimes of their lives, and be ready to face those inner demons that initially caused their physical downward spiral.

To be considered as a potential contestant for the show, please read this Agreement carefully, complete the questionnaire and submit the signed Agreement to EMTV (via the EMTV offices located on Level 2, Garden City, Boroko, NCD). Note that contestants must be residents of Port Moresby, and all submissions must be received before 6pm on Friday 9 February 2018.
